COMMUNITY RESOURCE COORDINATION GROUPS AND TEXAS SYSTEM OF CARE COLLABORATION

CRCGs and the Texas System of Care work with communities to break down barriers, identify service gaps and find ways to improve service delivery systems for children, youth and families.

WHAT ARE CRCGS?

CRCGs are county-based groups of local partners and community members that work with parents, caregivers, youth and adults with complex needs to identify and coordinate services and supports.

- They help people whose needs can't be met by one single agency and who would benefit from interagency coordination.
- They strive to meet the person's and family's needs with community-based solutions whenever possible.

WHAT IS THE TEXAS SYSTEM OF CARE?

The Texas System of Care works to transform child- and youth-serving systems and local communities to best meet the needs of children, youth and young adults with behavioral health challenges and their families.

- This approach is founded on the values of being family driven, youth guided/driven, culturally and linguistically responsive, and community based.
- This framework is used to build more accessible, responsive, and effective arrays of services and supports, fill gaps and improve outcomes.

HOW CRCGS AND THE TEXAS SYSTEM OF CARE WORK TOGETHER

CRCGs work to connect people and families with services to meet their needs. Systems of care use information gathered from CRCGs to collaborate across systems and agencies and identify gaps and barriers at local and state levels. Using this information, the Texas System of Care works to improve policies and systems.

SYSTEM OF CARE ROAD MAP

All levels of a system of care inform and guide each other.

Systems and Policy

Identifying and strengthening policies and practices to support a strong system of care infrastructure that meets the needs of children, youth and families.

Community

CRCGs infuse system of care values through their processes and inform systems of care about community needs at local and state levels.

Services and Supports

Strengthening coordinated service delivery systems for children and families to ensure they have access to effective and appropriate community-based services and supports.

Children, Youth and Family

Voices of lived experience inform and drive all processes, services and systems.

The system of care values are incorporated into each level.
